

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 3, Number 15. August 06, 2020

UK sanctions individuals under the new Global Human Rights Sanctions Regulations

By Sascha Matuszak

The Global Human Rights Sanctions Regulations 2020^[1] came into force July 6 in the United Kingdom. Like the United States Global Magnitsky Act, the U.K. law targets individuals for violations of human rights and places sanctions on them, their companies and their associates.

This document is only available to subscribers. Please log in or purchase access.

Purchase Login