

Five Steps to Help Mitigate Compliance Risk During the Covid-19 Pandemic

---

Daniel Martin, Partner, Jones Walker.

July 1, 2020

- The Covid-19 pandemic and related relief efforts present heightened compliance risks and the government has already begun to take aggressive enforcement action
- There are many ways in which even well-intentioned and compliance-oriented businesses can wind up facing an enforcement action during the pandemic
- Five practical steps to mitigate this heightened risk

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase