

GENERAL SESSION: What do Starbucks Coffee, Jimmy Buffet, and a Can of Cheez Whiz Have in Common? A Unique Look at How to Explain Ethics and Compliance and Successfully Embed It Within the Operations
GENERAL SESSION: What do Starbucks Coffee, Jimmy Buffet, and a Can of Cheez Whiz Have in Common? A Unique Look at How to Explain Ethics and Compliance and Successfully Embed It Within the Operations

Beth Colling, Senior Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer, CDM Smith, Inc..

June 2, 2020

- Learn how to introduce or refresh a compliance and ethics program into your organization, especially where buy-in seems lacking
- Develop methods to market your program to internal stakeholders using real-life examples
- Take away practical tips for establishing and defining the program and embedding it within your organization using the operational leaders as your Compliance Ambassadors

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase