

Implementing a Global Trade Compliance Programme Implementing a Global Trade Compliance Programme

---

Kevin Riddell, Director, Trade and Regulatory Compliance, Construction Products Group.

April 20, 2020

- Challenges for US multinational organizations, when implementing a global trade compliance programme, including language, cultural, and regional regulatory differences
- Overview of how US sanctions and export compliance affect foreign branches and subsidiaries
- How to implement a programme that works, both for the US parent organization and the foreign subsidiary. How to resolve conflicts between regional requirements

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase