

The View from Machu Picchu: Compliance Updates – Major Changes in Peru's Legal, Corporate Governance

The View from Machu Picchu: Compliance Updates – Major Changes in Peru's Legal, Corporate Governance

Julio Arboleda Ramirez, Consultant.

March 17, 2020

- Peru's crisis and remarkable cultural transformation in its attitudes to corruption, as well as money laundering and financing of terrorism.
- International best practices in the application of good corporate governance cycles to compliance programs
- The current fall of Peru's ruling political class, and the role of corruption
- This presentation will help make sense of both the new legal landscape and emerging corporate governance practices and culture

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase