

How a Twenty Year Military Career Developed Me as an Ethics & Compliance Professional!

Mark Revel, Lead Case Manager, Compliance and Ethics Investigation Team, Northrop Grumman.

September 17, 2019

- Part One: Integrity First! The USAF #1 Core Value is the very foundation of all we do as CEPs. Learn how basic core values can be applied to your working life with integrity lessons learned and applied.
- Part Two: Employee Engagement when the bullets are flying! — Everyone knows engaged employees are more productive. Here's why....You will learn how and why you should become the most engaged employee on your organization's team.
- Part Three: Leadership is everything! You will learn what true leadership is and will be given practical examples and tips for learning and applying the crucial art of leadership in our roles as CEPs. Leadership is essential for our professional development at CEPs.

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase