

What do Starbucks Coffee, Jimmy Buffet and a Can of Cheez Whiz Have in Common? A Unique Look at How to Explain Ethics and Compliance and Successfully Embed it Within the Operations. What do Starbucks Coffee, Jimmy Buffet and a Can of Cheez Whiz Have in Common? A Unique Look at How to Explain Ethics and Compliance and Successfully Embed it Within the Operations.

Beth Colling, Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer, CDM Smith, Inc..

September 17, 2019

- Learn how to introduce or refresh a compliance and ethics program into your organization, especially where buy-in seems lacking
- Develop methods to market your program to internal stakeholders using real-life examples
- Take away practical tips for establishing and defining the program and embedding it within your organization using the operational leaders as your Compliance Ambassadors

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase