

A Compliance Case Study from the Trenches with Current and Former DOJ Prosecutors

David Schumacher, Partner, Lundy & Bookman, PC. Abraham George, Assistant U.S. Attorney, Department of Justice.

April 8, 2019

- Using a real-life case study, DOJ Attorney Abraham George and former healthcare fraud prosecutor David Schumacher will discuss the numerous and challenging compliance issues that arose in a recent federal healthcare fraud investigation
- Topics to be discussed include arrangements with physicians that potentially violate the Anti-Kickback Law, interactions with insurance companies that give rise to fraud charges and false claims, and practices that implicate HIPAA criminal liability
- Discuss current DOJ healthcare enforcement priorities and trends

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase