

Protecting the Bottom-line: Defending Claims with Policies & Procedures

Renee Blomme, Manager Patient Experience, North York General Hospital.

April 9, 2019

- Risk and claim management evolve through claims identification, investigation, discovery, mediation, and resolution. Learn how to achieve excellence by establishing standard policies, protocols, and procedures to guide your claims management process
- Discover how modernizing your policy and procedure management platform enables the ability to verify staff have reviewed the most current policies, helps you easily and effectively defend claims and aids accreditation with easy access to approved policies
- Learn how to eliminate liabilities by streamlining your healthcare claims management activities and reducing operational spending with digital policies and procedures easily accessible to all staff and dynamic workflows enable easy policy maintenance

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase