

General Compliance Session: From the Big Easy to the Big Ten and Beyond: Lessons from the Reform of the New Orleans Police Department for Colleges and Universities

Jonathan Aronie, Partner, Sheppard Mullin. Joseph Jay, Partner, Sheppard Mullin.

June 11, 2019

- Identify and explore fundamental change management concepts that apply to organizational integrity reform efforts including, the ongoing reform of the New Orleans Police Department (NOPD)
- Apply lessons learned from ongoing public organizational reform efforts, including the NOPD reform effort, to real-life college and university events
- Evaluate how these reform strategies can be applied to evolving issues on campus and in society

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase