

GENERAL SESSION Lessons Learned from Recent Physician Practice Enforcement Actions

---

Anna M. Grizzie, Partner, Bass, Berry & Sims PLC. Shannone Raybon, Managing Counsel, CareSpot.

October 29, 2019

- Review of recent enforcement actions, including billing/coding and compensation arrangements, as hypotheticals to understand potential issues and lessons learned from the settlements
- Discussion of potential individual liability physicians and other leaders of physician practices can face and recommendations for obtaining buy-in by thought leaders on the compliance initiatives to prevent enforcement actions
- Practical tips for operationalizing lessons learned into physician practice compliance programs, including suggestions for training, auditing/monitoring options, and recommendations for correcting identified issues

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase