

Compliance Today - September 2020 Compliance monitoring

By John Falcetano

John Falcetano (john.falcetano@brooksrehab.org) is Director Corporate Compliance at Brooks Health System in Jacksonville, FL.

A critical element of any effective compliance program is monitoring. As a service to our members, each month this column focuses on potential monitors for specific business lines.

In this month's article on monitoring, we'll focus on compliance monitoring and why it is a key part of any effective compliance program. One of the most important elements of compliance programs is having a process to identify actual or potential noncompliance so that management can take actions to correct the noncompliance and mitigate the risk of reoccurrence. Monitoring is that process.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login

Copyright © 2024 by Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics (SCCE) & Health Care Compliance Association (HCCA). No claim to original US Government works. All rights reserved. Usage is governed under this website's Terms of Use.