

Compliance Today – September 2020 DOJ and the FTC issue updated vertical merger guidelines

By Sascha Matuszak

The United States government watchdogs issued new guidelines regarding how federal antitrust agencies will evaluate the impact of vertical mergers on June 30.<sup>[1]</sup> The new guidelines are the first revisions since the 1984 Non-Horizontal Merger Guidelines and mark the first time the Federal Trade Commission and the Department of Justice (DOJ) have jointly issued guidelines on antitrust issues.
