

Anti-Corruption Compliance in Thailand Anti-Corruption Compliance in Thailand

John Frangos, Partner and Deputy Director, Dispute Resolution, Tilleke & Gibbins.

July 12, 2019

- How the Organic Act on Counter Corruption, the Submission of Bids Act, and other Thai anti-corruption law applies to the private sector and NGOs; (b)
- The Internal Control Guidelines issued by the National Anti-Corruption Commission and how those guidelines can be incorporated into an organization's compliance program; (c) examples of corruption-related risks in Thailand; and (d) how organizations can reduce their risks by proper implementation of a compliance program.
- Case studies based on the speaker's experience and knowledge to illustrate anti-corruption compliance
- Failures in Thailand, and how a strong compliance program could address, or have prevented such failures

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase