

Have the Rules Changed for Compliance for Healthcare Provider Transactions Over the Past Three Decades

Max Reiboldt, President/CEO, Coker Group. Thomas D. Anthony, Esquire, Frost Brown Todd, LLC.

August 18, 2020

- Review the past 30+ years and contrast with the current healthcare transaction landscape as well as identify the forces behind the changes in transactions considering what lies beyond today
- Review simplicity of transactions of the 80's and discuss political landscape and transactions of the 90's; consider the legal/regulatory environment during these years
- Examine the new era of transactions of the early 2000's and evaluate features of "full" alignment of the 2010's and beyond; consider how legal ramifications changed during these years and discuss the relative legal/regulatory and economic/governance challenges of transactions today versus 20-30 years ago

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase