

Report on Supply Chain Compliance Volume 3, Number 17. September 03, 2020 Montreal dockworkers strike for more pay, better hours

By Sascha Matuszak

Dockworkers of the Canadian Union of Public Employees Local 375 have been on strike for two weeks, disrupting supply chain operations^[1] in the second largest port in Canada. “Montreal’s port handles more than US$75 billion of merchandise a year, including more than 2 million metric tons of iron ore.” The port is the country’s main maritime gateway for trade with Europe.
