

CEP Magazine – October 2020

Cryptocurrency provider tightens compliance in face of widespread fraud

By Sascha Matuszak

LocalBitcoins, a Finnish peer-to-peer bitcoin marketplace plagued by criminal transactions, has spent the past year bolstering its compliance functions^[1] after a study found that the marketplace processed the most criminal transactions of any cryptocurrency platform in the world.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login