

Remote Workplace Investigations Remote Workplace Investigations

Brett Holubeck, Associate Attorney, Liskow & Lewis.

October 6, 2020

- Attendees will know how to conduct an investigation for an employee that is working remotely
- Participants will understand the basics of conducting an investigation when they are working remotely and other individuals are working on-site
- Attendees will recognize the different methods of investigation that are necessary to adapt in-person investigations to a remote work environment

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase