

HIPAA and Social Media HIPAA and Social Media

Cathy Jefferson, Compliance Officer, University Hospitals.

October 27, 2020

- HIPAA and social media are very challenging for our physician offices; this presentation will define this new era of communication
- This presentation will help physician offices to make sure they are not violating HIPAA regulations as they relate to social media and what to do if you find yourself sitting in front of OCR
- This presentation will provide tips and tricks to help educate your providers on how to participate in social media without violating HIPAA regulations

This document is only available to subscribers

Purchase