

Compliance Today – December 2020 CMS set to implement hospital price transparency rule

By Sascha Matuszak

The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) will implement hospital transparency rules on January 1, 2021. The agency has released a final rule,^[1] guidance,^[2] and answers to frequently asked questions^[3] to help hospitals get compliant with the new rule. Additional resources are available on the agency's dedicated page.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login