CEP Magazine - December 2020
Compliance in the age of cost containment

By Jennifer L. Kennedy, BA

Jennifer L. Kennedy (jenniferkennedy@barberinstitute.org) is Vice President, Governance, Risk Management & Compliance at Barber National Institute in Erie, Pennsylvania, USA.

- linkedin.com/in/jennifer-kennedy

Well, for some of us, the time has come—cost containment. Whether it's a pandemic, or just the usual economic cycle, every industry faces times of cost containment. How does a compliance department survive in these times? It's a message that I've been preaching since I found myself in a compliance role over a decade ago. (In fact, I wrote about it in a 2017 column called "Luxury items.")[1]

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login

Copyright © 2024 by Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics (SCCE) & Health Care Compliance Association (HCCA). No claim to original US Government works. All rights reserved. Usage is governed under this website's Terms of Use.