

Compliance Today – December 2020 Report finds some Medicare risk assessments may be profit driven

---

By Sascha Matuszak

A recent report<sup>[1]</sup> released by the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services Office of Inspector General found that billions in Medicare payments were paid out for risk assessments performed by third parties, often in-home assessments, which may have exaggerated risks and not resulted in more care.

This document is only available to members. Please log in or become a member.

Become a Member Login