

Key Compliance Challenges in the Physician Practice Setting

John M. Poma, Chief Legal Counsel, Tidewater Physicians Multispecialty Group.

December 11, 2020

- Develop an enterprise risk management strategy as a foundation to an organization's compliance program
- Foster an organizational culture and articulate shared values to support a robust compliance program
- Create reporting structures that encourage employees and stakeholders to bring issues forward (related to culture)
- Educate physicians and obtain buy-in as to why both top down and bottom up compliance is important
